HIGHWAYMEN SENTENCED.

Walter A. Gleeton Gets Not Less Than Three Years at Windsor.

Burlington, Oct. 30.—In Chittenden county court yesterday Judge Taylor sentenced Walter A. Gleeton to not less than three and not more than six years in the state prison for holding up and robbing Robert McLarkins of $32 near Fort Ethan Allen.

In the case of State vs. Eva Haskins and Charles Rounds of South Burlington, who were each charged with adultery, pleas of guilty were entered.
Rounds was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to not less than two nor more than three years. A like sentence was imposed in the case of Mrs. Haskins, but sentence was suspended in both cases and the two respondents were placed in the hands of the probation officer.

Mrs. Clara Schurman, who was recently placed in the hands of the probation officer on her plea of guilty to a charge of illegal selling, was brought before the court in chambers by Probation Officer Sherman on an information that the provisions of her probation had been violated. An order was made that the conditions of the woman's probation be modified so that she may not allow any member of her household or any boarders to keep intoxicating liquor on hand. It came to the attention of Mr.
Sherman that liquor was being sent to the house, which Mrs. Schurman said was for her husband's personal use.

Wanted All That Was in It.

Father (whose wife has presented him with twins)—Tommy, you may stay home from school today and tomorrow tell the teacher you have two new brothers. Tommy—Wouldn't it be better to say that I have only one new brother? Then I can stay home a day next week for the other one.—Pileggi-Blatter.

The Last Word.

"How did you come to bid so extravagantly on so poor a hand?" asked the patient partner.
"Humph!" returned Mrs. Filmgilt.
"You didn't suppose I was going to let that woman on my right have the last word, did you?"—Washington Star.

So Did He.

"Do you know," said the successful merchant pompously, "that I began life as a 'barefoot boy'?"
"Well," said his clerk, "I wasn't born with shoes on either."

Catching Her.

She spouting—Before we were married you often used to catch me in your arms.
He—Yes, and now I catch you in my pockets.

Spanking high school in the class of 1909, who has been stationed at Vernal, Utah, in the service of the United States ferred to Boise, Idaho. The transfer was made Oct. 12. Mr. Scott was in the service at Vernal for about two years and a half. In his new appointment, Mr. Scott has a position, which places him in rank for a promotion in the future.

A Shetland pony attached to a pony cart and standing in the yard of the Clark feed store on Prospect street became startled yesterday by a passing freight train and broke out of the yard, running into the opening of the small cluster of houses on Prospect street, just across the railroad tracks, where the pony was halted. The youngster who was occupying the cart, which had just been loaded with a bag of meal, clung to the reins and held his seat until upset as the cart collided with a piazza post of one of the houses. The youngster was thrown heavily to the ground, seeming more chagrined over the damage to the cart than over the injuries he incurred himself.

Yesterday's football practice at Tufts college resulted in Sherburne and Mc-Fur, two of the gridiron stars at Goddard seminary last year, being turned over to the varsity squad. Sherburne has been out of practice for some time, owing to illness with boils, but on returning to the game he continues to strengthen himself with the coaches.
Sherburne will be used in a regular position in the backfield, owing to his ability to carry the ball. McFur, who has been playing all year, moved into the varsity team when the regular ends were transplanted to the second squad.
This makes three former Goddard lads now playing regular positions on the Tufts team, Richardson playing at center.

Suspended in the show windows of the Brown drug store are four lemons of such size as to make a person gape when he considers them to have been nurtured in this city. The lemons are the property of Emile Bros., proprietors of the bathhouse and flower conservatories at the lower end of the city. The shrubs which fostered the sour fruit have been in the possession of the soil cultivators for six or seven years and have annually offered up their fruit. The products this year surpass those in any other year, two of the fruits measuring in circumference 12 inches one way and 14 inches another.
The other two are of larger proportions, measuring in circumference 14 inches one way and 16 inches another. The lemons were plucked Thursday. City Judge Scott gained attention far beyond the borders of the Green Mountain state by cultivating at his office a lemon of smaller dimensions, and the greenhouse men demand recognition now for growing lemons, the size of which is not common even on the keys of Florida.
The proud possessors of the lemons are in hopes of transforming each fruit into two likely appearing pies.

BEST $5 HE EVER SPENT

Bristol, Pa., Man Says So in This Letter.

Months of suffering and anxiety over his condition caused Mr. A. L. Kennedy of Bristol, Pa., to write this letter. He says: "Grippe and a bad cough caused me much suffering and worry for five long months, but that is all over now, for I have taken Vinol and am perfectly well. I took five bottles and it was the best five dollars I ever spent."

In health one cannot realize how depressed a person may become after trying one remedy after another for such a condition as Mr. Kennedy was in, without benefit, or what a relief it is to find help and be restored to health and strength.

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative element of cold liquors without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in overcoming chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

We guarantee Vinol to give you perfect satisfaction. Red Cross Pharmacy, Burlington, Vt. Prop. Barre, Vt.
P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.—Adv't.

Resting on His Laurels.

An undertaker was discussing queer seputures.

"A queer seputure indeed," he said,
"was that of a German playwright, Gustave von Moser. Von Moser kept in his house a costly and beautiful urn.
He purposed to be cremated, and his ashes were to be put in the urn afterward."

"But the strangest thing about the urn was that it contained a little bed of ashes during Von Moser's life. He used, you see, to get a good many laurel wreaths when his new plays were put on, and he would take a sprig from each wreath, burn it and drop the ashes into the urn."

"My own ashes," he would say, "will lie on top. Thus after death it may be truly said of me that I am resting on my laurels."—New York Tribune.

Panoramas.

The panorama was invented by one Robert Barker of Scotland as far back as 1790. In 1788 Barker exhibited at Edinburgh a view of that city painted around the walls of a circular building, the first picture of its kind ever seen. He then commenced similar exhibitions in London, having adopted the name "panorama." He later on built commodious quarters in Leicester square for his exhibitions. Barker died in 1806, leaving his well nigh perfected art to be continued by others.

druggist of Bennington and a veteran of the Civil war, in which he served four years in the 16th New York volunteers, died suddenly Sunday in the office of a physician in North Adams, Mass., whom he had gone to consult in regard to heart trouble. He had lived in Bennington practically all his life and had been in poor health for some time. He was a member of the G. A. R. post of Bennington and of the Odd Fellows. He was an attendant of the Methodist church.
